Pullman, Washington, April 14 and 15, 1921

Mother Goose—The joy of our childhood days, was not a creature of story books alone, but a real woman, named Elizabeth Foster, who was born in 1665 in Boston, where she lived to the age of 92 years.

In 1692 she married Isaac Vergoose (otherwise Goose).

She was always fond of telling stories for children and composed the rhymes which bear her name, to entertain her own grandchildren, to whom she told them over and over again, to the accompaniment of laughter and shouts of joy. In 1719 her rhymes were collected and published by her son-in-law, Thomas Fleet. These facts make more interesting the character, Mother Goose, that we all know and love.
